

Protect the Poppy

Last year Muslim fanatics burned our Remembrance Poppy defiling the memory of our Fallen Heroes, insulting the British nation and causing maximum distress to the British people.

Police, courts and Government did nothing, proving that we can no longer rely on them to protect the British people, our interests and our culture.

Defence groups are assembled across the country to defend against these Muslim Fanatics. It's up to us, and we will NOT allow Muslim Fanatics to defile the memory of our Fallen Heroes.

On Armistice Day, Friday 11th November at 10am, Muslim Fanatics are AGAIN threatening to hold their 'Hell For Heroes' demonstration and burn poppies.

British National Party European Member of Parliament Nick Griffin is holding an all-night vigil the night before and a demonstration at 9am outside the Royal Albert Hall to keep the poppy-burners away.

Join the PROTECT THE POPPY demonstration on Friday 11th November at 9am outside the Royal Albert Hall in central London.
